Approval of Meeting Minutes October 12, 2021

Michael made a motion to approve, Michelle seconded - APPROVED

Housing/Nuisance

Tim Newton reported there were four housing complaints over the last month, one complaint on Parker Road was valid. New owners cleaned the property and there is no issue.

Food Inspections

Michael Mazloff stated he was impressed over 40 food inspections were completed. Tim Newton informed him there are about twice that many in Town which range from the Big Y to residential kitchens that make cookies. He stated that most restaurants were in good shape. An inspection was completed at Gouda's after a complaint of a food borne illness was received. The owner voluntarily closed for a thorough cleaning and follow-up inspections have been promising.

Rutland COVID Booster Clinic for schools

- Rutland will be hosting clinics at the schools for 5-11 year olds, there are 600 slots available. Michael asked if additional information on the vaccination should be provided to residents.

776 Malden Street Compost Notice

- The Town has not received any communication from DEP.
