Basement Fire Damages Zottoli Road Home

Fire damaged a residence at 70 Zottoli Road in Holden earlier today. The fire, which was called in to the Wachusett Regional Communications Center at 11:09 AM, appears to have started in the basement causing extensive damage to the interior of the home.

The first arriving units found heavy fire in the basement of the structure and a 2nd alarm was dispatched. Upon entry into the basement, crews were met with deteriorating conditions but were able to bring the fire under control. The home sustained significant fire damage to the basement and smoke damage to the other floors. The Holden Fire Department was assisted on scene by the Rutland, Sterling, Paxton and West Boylston Fire Departments. Holden Police, HMLD and DPW Water and Sewer also assisted at the scene. The Princeton Fire Department provided station coverage. No injuries were reported and the fire remains under investigation by the State Fire Marshal's Office.
