- Routine Food Inspections – March – Pizza 17 (some violations, re inspected, sending pictures once rectified), Calvary Worship Center, Chaffin Congregational Church, Val’s Restaurant, Meolas (Pre op), Try a Little Whoopie, North Worcester Fox & Coon Club, Friendlys, Kyoto (some violations, met with owner, in the process of solving the violations), Harvest Grille, The Bagel Inn
- Mike reviewed the new food code changes with the restaurants inspected
- General Complaints
- 68 Fisher Road – Abandoned House, sent a letter to the property owner, the house has since been boarded up.
- Siam 9 – Food Complaint, met with owner the dish that the complaint was about was not served on the day of the complaint.
- 469 Bailey Road – animal complaint, dead steer in the yard, Julie Vanarsdalen went out to the property to confirm the steer had been properly buried.
- 57 Walnut Street – Animal complaint, being rectified.
- Michael Mazloff asked about abandoned homes, can the town or the Attorney General’s office condemn these homes? Mike Mendez answered there is a process if the homeowner does not rectify the issues, but if the homeowner does rectify the issues there is no grounds for the town or Attorney General to take receivership.

CMRPHA Report – Michael Mendez – Regional Public Health Specialist

Michael Mendez highlighted some information from the report

- Next Alliance meeting will be April 17, 2019 12:30-2:00 in Worcester. Michael Mazloff will attend.

New/Other Business

- Michael Mazloff and Mike Mendez attended a training at Wachusett Regional High School for the Emergency Dispensing Site given by the Alliance. Michael Mazloff learned that if there is an emergency there is ample space for intake and segregation if triage is needed.
- Michelle O’Rourke asked about the blood pressure clinics and other clinics done through the Alliance by the Public Health Nurse, can these be done in Holden? Michelle is an RN and would be willing to help out if needed. Mike Mendez answered that the Public Health Nurses are reaching out to the Senior Center, he will check to see what the status is on that and will let the Board know
- Adjourn – Meeting was adjourned at 6:01 pm. Next Board of Health meeting is scheduled for April 23, 2019 at 5:30 PM.
